We're excited to show it off! If you haven't seen the new setup yet, reach out to your Bigfoot sales rep and schedule a time to stop by. We'd love to walk you through our expanded shop and show you where the future of Bigfoot Construction Supply is headed.

We're fully operational and it's business as usual – just in a bigger, better space.

WORK ANNIVERSARIES

CELEBRATING 4 YEARS OF JAKE SUTHERLAND AT BIGFOOT CONSTRUCTION SUPPLY!

Jake Sutherland

This month marks 4 amazing years with Jake Sutherland, our Sales Manager and a cornerstone of Bigfoot Construction Supply.

Jake came to us with a wealth of experience in construction and construction supply sales—and while his resume was impressive, we'll admit it: we really hired him to get a package deal with his sister Sheila. But jokes aside, Jake has proven himself to be so much more than a great hire.

Jake is the calm in the eye of the storm. His sincere approach, steady leadership, and positive outlook have made him not only a top-tier salesman but a trusted leader and mentor within our team. He's someone who lifts the people around him and brings out the best in every situation.

Jake, your impact on Bigfoot has been enormous—and we're better because you're here. Thank you for everything you bring to the team. Here's to many more years of success, laughter, and steady leadership!
